

Trempealeau County Public Health

Prevent. Promote. Protect

The Trempealeau County Health Department has requested fee exempt kits from the state for use by home owners in testing private wells that were affected by flooding. A well that has been flooded is considered unsafe. Please review the Tips for Flooded Wells available on the county website.

The Trempealeau County Health Department will post when the kits are available, and where they can be picked up.